AS WE PREPARE FOR LENT: FIVE PRATICAL PRACTICES FOR A FRUITFUL LENT

Each year, the Church gives us the holy season of Lent as a time of renewal, forty days to return to the Lord with greater intention and trust. Lent is not about self-improvement for its own sake, but about allowing God to reshape our hearts. The Church traditionally invites us to embrace prayer, fasting, and almsgiving.

Below are five practical practices to help make this season a time of genuine spiritual growth.

1. Commit to Daily Prayer: Prayer is the foundation of Lent. Even a small, faithful commitment can open space for God to work. Consider setting aside ten minutes each day for quiet prayer, perhaps with the daily Mass readings, a psalm, or simply sitting in silence before the Lord. If you already pray regularly, Lent is a good time to deepen that habit by adding Eucharistic Adoration, the Rosary, or the Stations of the Cross. What matters most is consistency and sincerity.

2. Practice Meaningful Fasting: Fasting helps us recognize our dependence on God and loosens the grip of habits that distract us from Him. Beyond the required days of fasting and abstinence, consider giving up something that truly challenges you, excessive screen time, unnecessary spending, or a favorite comfort food. When hunger or discomfort arises, offer it to the Lord as a prayer. Fasting is not about punishment, but about freedom: making room in our hearts for God.

3. Reconcile and Begin Again: Lent is a privileged time to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Confession allows us to experience God's mercy in a personal and concrete way. Preparing with an examination of conscience and approaching the sacrament with humility can be deeply healing. Even those who come regularly are encouraged to make a good confession during Lent, trusting in the Lord who always welcomes us home.

4. Practice Intentional Charity: Almsgiving is more than writing a check; it is a way of seeing others as God sees them. Consider one intentional act of charity each week, supporting a parish outreach, donating to a local food pantry, or offering time to someone who is lonely or in need. Acts of charity help us move beyond ourselves and reflect the generosity of Christ.

5. Embrace Simplicity and Silence: Lent invites us to step back from noise and busyness. Creating moments of silence—turning off the radio in the car, putting down the phone, or simplifying our schedules—helps us listen more attentively to God. Simplicity clears away distractions so we can focus on what truly matters.

As we journey through Lent together, may these practices draw us closer to Christ and prepare our hearts to celebrate the joy of Easter with renewed faith and hope.

The St. Margaret Mary Women's Group is starting up again and warmly welcomes all women to our first session, "Word of the Year," on February 28th from 9:30–11:00 a.m.
